▪ Antiques for Everyone returns to the NEC

The Midlands is soon to host Britain's premier dedicated antiques event, 'Antiques for Everyone' when the fair opens at the NEC for four days from 24th - 27th July 2008.

The biggest and most successful event in its field; 'Antiques for Everyone' returns to its Midlands home for the 23rd year running, giving locals the opportunity to see an incredible 50,000 specialist pieces under one roof.

Antiques for Everyone is a destination for private collectors, interior decorators and trade buyers alike. A perfect day to browse and buy with friends, find that stunning antique engagement ring or search for pieces to add to your established collections.

For design ideas for your home, visit the room scenes feature area where inspirational Antiques have been carefully chosen to reflect the prominent eras of the 19th & 20th Centuries.

A specialist feature on Carlton Ware ceramics will also be displayed with more than 500 pieces from a private exhibitor with a strong Art Deco influence, a remarkable opportunity to see such a collection.

With over 400 specialist dealers from around the country showcasing stunning pieces of fine period furniture, pottery, glass, sculpture, arts and crafts worth more than £20m, Antiques for Everyone is a spectacle not to be missed, right on your doorstep.
